

MAKING YOUR VOICE HEARD AT THE EU LEVEL

INFLUENCING EU POLICY IN ADULT LEARNING THROUGH ADVOCACY

PROGRAMME

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR
THE EDUCATION OF ADULTS

CIVIL SOCIETY ENGAGEMENT IN EU POLICY-MAKING

Tuesday, 17/11, 10:00 am CET

What are the consultation processes for civil society in EU policy development in the field of adult learning and education? Manuela Geleng, Director for Skills at DG EMPL, European Commission, will share with you how civil society has been engaged in preparing and implementing the new Skills Agenda.

REACHING OUT TO MEPs

Tuesday, 24/11, 11:00 am CET

What can you do as an adult education provider, or as a citizen, to get in touch with a Member of the European Parliament? MEP Dace Melbārde will share her reflections, and will also introduce you to the work of the European Parliament Committee on Culture and Education, where she is a Vice-Chair.

LINKING EU AND NATIONAL LEVEL

Wednesday, 2/12, 11:00 am CET

What is the impact of advocacy at the national level on EU-decision making? Juliane Soyka, Education Attaché of the Austrian Federal Ministry of Education, Science and Research, will explain the role of the European Council, and how you can get involved.

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF ADULTS