EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF ADULTS

I'm the Chairman of the Council of the Estonian Non-Formal Adult Education Association. I have extensive experience in adult education sector since 2000. I'm also the manager of the education and training center Osilia and I have also the adult educator professional certificate on level 7. I hold a master's degree in Business Administration supported by different trainings on management, entrepreneurship, strategic planning, leadership and project management areas.

2. How would you like to contribute to the work of EAEA, based on your experience in your organisation?

I have quite a long experience in many positions in adult education and lifelong learning, having been in several roles as advisor, educator, board member, chair in adult education associations and also educational institutes. I would like to contribute to the work of EAEA by sharing my knowledge and experience both on a practical and strategical level. I have direct links to Estonian Ministry of Education and Research, and I'm also member of the Estonian Adult Education Council, which helps to build closer relationships between EAEA and Estonian Lifelong Learning sector. I would like to contribute to EAEA's advocacy work on lifelong learning policy as well as support deepening collaboration between EAEA members.

3. What are your motivations as a candidate?

I consider openness to be important in the work of the Board, the involvement of EAEA members and the willingness to engage courageous and fresh ideas in the design of EAEA and lifelong learning. Moreover, being Chairman of the ENEAE Council, I am highly motivated to act as an active link between EAEA and ENEAE. My motivation is people and the team around me.

4. Which other information would you like to share with the EAEA members?

I consider my strength to be able to see the good side of different points of view, to analyse situations calmly, to formulate ideas comprehensively, to see the details without losing sight of the big picture. I am an optimist by nature, interested in everything that goes on, which increases our well-being and improves the quality of our living environment.
