ABOUT THE PROJECT

The project DIMA 2.0 – Developing Strategies for Adult Education Providers aims to support adult education providers design new or improve existing strategies for their organisations, to provide high-quality learning opportunities for adults, focused on the needs of low-skilled and low-qualified adults. The project brings together a partnership of experts in the field of adult education from Cyprus, Belgium, Spain, and Ireland and an associate partner from Switzerland.

Stay tuned for some engaging and interesting actions coming up!

DIMA 2.0 KICK-OFF MEETING IN NICOSIA

The DIMA 2.0 partners met at the 14th and 15th of January in Nicosia for the kick-off meeting of the project. At the meeting, partners discussed the initial steps of the project and the development project's first output, a Toolkit for Adult Education providers.

DIMA 2.0 PARTNERS MEET ONLINE

On the 13th of May, partners of the DIMA 2.0 project met online and discussed the progress of the project. The key subject of the meeting was the development of the project's first output, a practical Toolkit for developing and monitoring adult education strategies. The Toolkit will help adult education providers develop training strategies tailored to the needs of adults, with a focus on low-skilled and low-qualified adults!

DIMA 2.0 TOOLKIT FOR ADULT EDUCATION PROVIDERS

Aiming to develop a useful and innovative toolkit, the DIMA 2.0 partners have conducted a multi-layered research to identify the needs in the field of adult education in all partners countries. The research included country-based desk research, interviews with key stakeholders, and questionnaires with adult learners. Based on the finding of the research, partners are now working on the development of Toolkit for developing and monitoring strategies for adult education providers, a practical toolkit aiming to help adult learners and adult educators to support to develop, design, implement and monitor effective strategies for reaching out to adult learners.
