

EAEA YOUNGER STAFF TRAINING

BOB SCHOUTEN
FUND: CALL FOR
APPLICATIONS 2022

EUROPEAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF ADULTS

EAEA has opened up the Bob Schouten fund to sponsor one participant of the EAEA Younger Staff Training 2022. The call for applications is open to young adult education professionals working in an Eastern European country outside of the EU.

What is the EAEA Younger Staff Training?

The EAEA Younger Staff Training (YST) will take place between 12-16 September in Brussels, Belgium. The training is a space for peer-learning and exchange, exploring the diversity of policy and practice in adult education in Europe.

A series of input sessions and workshops will help the participants learn more about key policy initiatives on adult education at the European level and practice planning their advocacy campaigns. In 2022 a special focus will be put on guidance, which will be explored through a workshop and a series of study visits to guidance centres in Brussels. Find out more from the programme.

The EAEA Younger Staff Training was first organized in 2011 and has since become a launching pad for young adult education professionals. The Bob Schouten fund, named after one of the founders of EAEA, has already been used to support a number of participants of the training.

What does the funding cover?

The funding covers all costs that are normally borne by the participant: the participation fee, travel, accommodation and subsistence costs in Brussels. Participants will be reimbursed at the latest one month after the training.

Can I apply?

To be able to apply, you need to:

- Be nominated by one of EAEA members or a member of an EAEA member, and
- Be based in a non-EU country in Eastern Europe.

There is no age limit, but we especially welcome participants with relatively little experience in adult education.

How can I apply?

To apply, please send a CV and motivation letter to Aleksandra Kozyra (aleksandra.kozyra@eaea.org) by 31 July, putting in the subject: EAEA Younger Staff Training: Bob Schouten fund application.

The selection results will be announced by 7 August.

Questions?

Should you have any questions about the training or your eligibility for the funding, please contact Aleksandra Kozyra, Head of Capacity-Building at aleksandra.kozyra@eaea.org.
